2006-07 ANNUAL REPORT

Appreciating those who support STA's mission

Your financial support for Saint Thomas Academy makes a very real difference in the daily lives of our students, faculty and staff. For example, the funds raised in our annual giving program help to provide for financial assistance. As a result, we can boast that the Academy, as a percent of tuition, offers more financial assistance than any other private school in Minnesota.

Annual giving has also helped us to raise faculty salaries over the past several years, making us the leader among Catholic schools and competitive with others. Our dedicated teachers deserve nothing less and your continued generosity to the Academy is making it happen.

Small class size, expanded student services and curricular offerings, ample co-curricular programs and so much more are, in part, directly owing to your financial gifts to the Academy. In short, we could not be the school we are without you.

This issue of Saber, our annual report, is a celebration of your support. It is one way in which we can draw attention to the alumni, parents, grandparents and friends who support the mission of the Academy with financial assistance. So, on behalf of all those who benefit from your help, know that you are appreciated. And, as always, our benefactors and the entire Saint Thomas Academy community are regularly in our prayers.

Thank you.

The mission of Saint Thomas Academy is to help young men build a solid foundation of responsible leadership within themselves, the Academy, the Catholic Church and the community.

Archbishop Flynn talked with cadets about his experiences.

Serving IN THE Presence OF God

The Most Reverend Harry J. Flynn, D.D.
receives the 2007 Opus Sancti Thomae Award

Since his ordination in 1960, Archbishop Harry J. Flynn has responded whenever the Church has called, touching countless lives throughout his long and distinguished career.

Over the past 47 years, he has served in many capacities, including parish pastor, high school teacher, retreat master, seminary rector, bishop of the Diocese of Lafayette, LA, and since 1995, spiritual leader to the more than 750,000 Catholics in the 12-county Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis.

As Archbishop, he is closely associated with Saint Thomas Academy in his role as chief officer to the Academy's 31-member Board of Trustees.

"The Archbishop has struck a perfect balance with the Academy's board," said Thomas Schreier, Jr. '80, chair of the Board of Trustees. "He is appropriately engaged with the board while also respectful of its roles and responsibilities. He is present with us in exactly the right sort of way."

Archbishop Flynn is also "a wonderful role model for our students and our staff," said Schreier. "He has a gentle spirit about him and a style of leadership that is knowledgeable, understanding and engaging."

Each year, the Archbishop celebrates Mass at the Academy and devotes a day to visiting classes, having lunch with the cadets and chatting with staff.

"When I go to the Academy to celebrate Mass, I can see in the students what they've received — a profound respect for the other, born out of an awareness of the presence of God," he said. "I love to walk through the halls of the Academy in the presence of these young men who are so respectful."

The Archbishop also presides at the Academy's graduation ceremonies each year at the Cathedral of St. Paul, personally congratulating each cadet as he receives his diploma.

"I think the world of Archbishop Flynn. He has led the Archdiocese with a clear vision and endless energy. He is kind and compassionate, an absolute gentleman, a great leader and indeed a friend."

“The graduation of the Academy is a very dignified occasion, the climax of four years of focused study. These young men are so impressive in their attitude and behavior throughout the ceremonies,” he said. “When they come outside on the steps and toss their hats in the air, it is delightful. It is always a highlight of my year.”

Archbishop Flynn said he learned the Academy was a special place soon after being named Coadjutor Archbishop in 1994.

“When I first came here, Archbishop Roach encouraged me to visit the school. He was a former headmaster and loved the Academy a great deal,” he said. “In my years here, the Academy has grown so beautifully. It’s at a point in its history that is truly outstanding.”

“Archbishop Flynn has brought wonderful values and attributes of ministry that have benefited the Archdiocese immensely. He has been a strong and faithful proponent of the Church’s traditional teaching yet always able to lead with a pastor’s heart. He has touched a lot of people’s lives.

I know he genuinely cares about Catholic education. I’ve heard him often speak proudly of his role with Saint Thomas Academy and his appreciation of the Academy’s affiliation as a diocesan institution.

As a former Opus award recipient, I’m very pleased that the Academy is giving him this honor. It is much deserved.”

REVEREND MICHAEL J. O’CONNELL ’59,
RECTOR, BASILICA OF SAINT MARY AND PASTOR,
CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION, MINNEAPOLIS

Every year, Archbishop Flynn celebrates the annual Saint Thomas Aquinas Mass at Saint Thomas Academy.

“I salute the faculty and, in a special way, Dr. Tom Mich, for his outstanding leadership,” he continued. “Dr. Mich and the staff are carrying into the future the banner given to them by previous generations.”

The youngest in a family of six children, Archbishop Flynn was born in an Irish neighborhood in Schenectady, NY. Both of his parents died by the time he was 12 years old and he was subsequently raised by elderly aunts and uncles who lived nearby. Besides his extended family, the parish priests and the sisters who taught him at the local Catholic schools offered him nurture and guidance as he grew up. “They were all so good to me,” he said. “God certainly took care of me.”

He attended Siena College, at the time an all-male school near Albany, NY, where he earned both bachelor and master’s degrees in English. From there, he enrolled in Mount Saint Mary’s Seminary in Emmitsburg, MD, to prepare for the priesthood.

Upon his ordination on May 28, 1960, he moved to Troy, NY, where he taught English in a large Catholic high school. In 1965, he returned to Mount Saint Mary’s Seminary where over a period of years he served as dean, vice rector and rector.

In 1979, he was called to the Albany Diocese to serve as pastor of the Church of St. Ambrose in Latham, NY.

“Archbishop Flynn is a central figure in Catholic education and has been a great supporter of the Academy. But his contributions extend far beyond education. The Archdiocese has been truly blessed to have him as our leader for so many years.”

THOMAS B. MICH, PH.D.
HEADMASTER

After Mass, the Archbishop chatted with STA's staff priests (L-R) Father Thomas F.A. O'Brien, Father Terry Weber and Father Dan Ostdiek, O.P. '50.

“My years at St. Ambrose were among the happiest years of my life,” Archbishop Flynn said. “I loved being with people at the parish level. It was pastoring in the deepest ways at the most important moments in their lives.”

In 1986, he was named as bishop of the Diocese of Lafayette, LA — “the only Irishman among all those Cajuns,” as he put it — a position he held until being named by Pope John Paul II as Coadjutor Archbishop for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis in February of 1994. On October 1, 1995, he succeeded Archbishop John Roach as head of the Archdiocese.

Looking back, Archbishop Flynn said he developed his abilities as a leader by learning from people around him at every stage in his life. “There have been many influences on my life,” he said. “You observe other people and learn from them, then you bring it all together.”

Through all his many areas of service to the Church, one thing has sustained Archbishop Flynn above all else.

“The one yeast in it all was a prayer life that I have treasured. It has been a grace in my life that began when my mother died,” he said.

As for receiving the Opus Sancti Thomae Award, Archbishop Flynn said he is honored to join the ranks of previous recipients.

“These are people who have contributed so much to our community. I’m also honored because of the association of Archbishop Roach with the Academy and of Archbishop Ireland who founded it so many years ago. The Academy was truly born out of the very heart of our local church.”

The Opus Sancti Thomae Award was established in 1992 to honor friends and affiliates of Saint Thomas Academy. This award recognizes both men and women who have made outstanding contributions to business, civic, church, educational and professional communities. We honor their respective characters and achievements with this medal, designed by the Reverend Thomas Kolar, deceased faculty member. Its centerpiece is an encircled Jerusalem cross. Embedded sapphires grace each bar of the cross and representations of the two Academy logos denote its place of origin.

Giving companies 'a tomorrow spin'

On the surface, the relaxed, hip atmosphere of space150's Minneapolis offices seems a world apart from the disciplined structure of Saint Thomas Academy.

But according to William "Billy" Jurewicz '87, there's a strong connection between the jeans-and-t-shirt corporate culture of this fast-growing digital marketing company and the Academy's button-down traditions.

"My business in non-traditional, very non-corporate, so people are surprised when they find out I went to STA," said Jurewicz, space150's owner and chief executive officer. "But what I learned at the Academy has been a big influence in building the company. The management style, the company structure and even the direction of the company stems from those lessons of how the military does it."

Take the company's regular Monday morning all-staff meeting, for example, a routine he modeled on Formation. "We bring all hundred or so staff together in a room and talk about what's going on," Jurewicz said. "It's about communication."

Launched just seven years ago, space150 today has more than 100 employees, offices in L.A. and New York, and clients that range from Target and Best Buy to Dairy Queen, Fair Isaac and Andersen Windows.

The company offers creative development, technical services and strategic planning, with emphasis on helping clients maximize the use of digital media.

"We are a futures company," Jurewicz said. "We upgrade brands for the modern world, which is in a state of perpetual evolution — things are always changing. We give our clients' brands a tomorrow spin."

The youngest of five children, Jurewicz grew up in Eagan and followed his brother Tom '82 to the Academy. But while Tom went on to become Cadet Colonel, Billy followed a different path.

"I wasn't a model cadet. I was more of an artistic type," he said. At STA, he played football, was on the track team and a member of the Crack Drill Squad. He's proud of working with art teacher Renee Des Jarlais to get STA's arts courses fully accredited.

Jurewicz's father, an entrepreneur at heart, distributed video games and computers in the 1980s to Target and other outlets. "I had a lot of exposure to technology growing up. I was definitely a computer geek," he said.

After graduation from the Academy, Jurewicz earned a degree in advertising from Marquette University and worked at a succession of ad agencies around the country. In the process, he says, he learned what not to do.

"The digital world was exploding," he said, but most agencies didn't know how to utilize it. So, in 2000, Jurewicz started his own shop — which last year earned more than $12 million in revenue.

International expansion is on the horizon for the company, but one thing that won't change is the "work hard/play hard" style that has been part of its success, Jurewicz said. "We have a sense of balance and perspective that has worked well."

THE ALUMNI REUNION
WEEKEND HAS MOVED!
SAVE THE DATES FOR
SEPTEMBER 25-27,
2008

From the President of the Alumni Association

Steve Sheahan '86

Dear Fellow Alumni:

Being a part of the Alumni Association these past few years has been an extremely rewarding experience. This year, I have been bestowed a great honor to lead our association as president, and am entrusted with the task of continuing the work of many others.

The board has established a goal of improving upon the many successes we have experienced as a result of changes in process and promotion of the events we support. A major initiative the board identified and examined the past 18 months has been a re-tooling of Alumni Reunion Weekend. I am pleased to announce that, with approval of the headmaster and support of the administration and the Board of Trustees, we have made the decision to move reunion weekend to the fall, creating a true "homecoming celebration." Our first Homecoming Reunion Weekend will be September 25-27, 2008. This event will continue to focus on the five-year classes (classes ending in three and eight for September 2008), but will also allow for other classes and their families to participate.

The board considered many options before making its decision. The primary concerns identified were declining attendance at reunion events, a need to accommodate requests from a large alumni base and to support the mission of the board to "invite, involve and inform" the entire Saint Thomas Academy community. The new weekend will also encourage involvement of alumni and their families with an event surrounding a Friday night football game. Celebrating a reunion in the fall is the more traditional and successful model used by many schools and universities.

Furthermore, I am proud to announce that the Alumni Association has formed a committee to create a Sports Hall of Fame. Roger Swenson '51 will chair the committee with support from many. The inaugural class will be introduced at half-time during the Homecoming football game as a part of the new Reunion Weekend.

Finally, the board encourages you to participate in the events we support. We also encourage you to become more involved in our community by volunteering and assisting us in support of our mission. If you have interest in serving on the board, or have questions about the events we support, please feel free to contact me at any time by sending an e-mail to Alumni@cadets.com or calling the Alumni Office at (651) 683-1599.

Randall Hallett

Your generosity

Helping boys become men of character for life

By Randall Hallett
Director of Institutional Advancement

I have been struggling with this article for several weeks now. This is the third such annual “thank you” I have written and I wanted to express the Academy’s gratitude in a new manner. However, three experiences in the past week made me realize I have been thinking about this the wrong way.

1. I recently had lunch with Jim Garberg ’41. During our meal, Mr. Garberg spoke about his experience in the Aleutian Islands during World War II and how the Academy prepared him for that experience. He said that without the discipline, the daily expectations that his “profs” placed before him, he would still have done his duty, but not to the same level. Shortly after graduation he was commissioned a 2nd lieutenant at age 18, responsible for the lives of many men, most older than he. Mr. Garberg is the recipient of the second highest military honor — the Distinguished Service Cross — for heroism in combat.
2. After Mass at Visitation Parish, I watched junior Tim Wolfgram as he worked with the Academy’s Fr. Tom O’Brien (and Visitation’s sacramental priest) to teach a group of young people how to be an altar boy or girl. Tim moved the kids around as Fr. O’Brien spoke, making sure that they were in the right places, listening and paying attention. However, what was most rewarding was how he smiled and enjoyed working with them. When I spoke to him afterward, he said he really enjoys sharing the Spirit of our Lord, especially with kids, and he had found this at the Academy.
3. While walking through the school, I witnessed two separate situations between the same two people. A student (who will remain nameless) was in a discussion with Mike Sjoberg, our Dean of Students — it was more of a lecture than a discussion as the student did not have much to say. Mr. Sjoberg was unhappy with some behavior and the cadet was certainly made aware of it. Later in the day, I saw the same student chatting with Mr. Sjoberg and they were both laughing. Being confused, I asked the student why the change in just a couple of hours. He told me that

Mr. Sjoberg was right that morning, handled the discipline, and moved on. The student appreciated the simple fact that Mr. Sjoberg treated him with respect. He also said the “profs” were the same way — high expectations but a great degree of care for them as a person.

From these three events, I found what I wanted to say. Yes, we certainly do say “thank you.” But, in the long run, it’s not about the money — it’s about the experience — for our young men.

Your generosity of time, talent, and treasure is changing lives — each and every day. If I had the time, I could show every benefactor one or more practical, instantaneous examples of how a life was changed through your support.

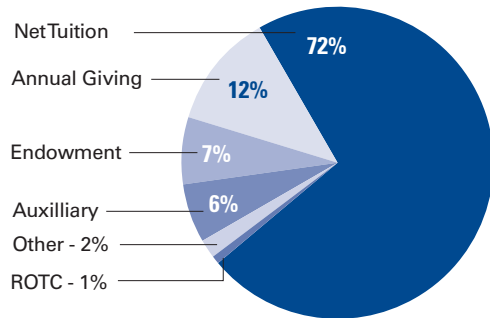

Some ask, “Why should I donate my time or money to the Academy?” Or, “Why the Academy over another charity?” Yes, we need it. But more importantly...

1. High school is one of the most important times of a man’s entire life. Studies show that a young man’s values, ethics and personal beliefs are solidified between ages 14 and 18. How he forms at this critical age will last his lifetime. The Academy has expectations that are unapologetically high because we believe in each student’s potential as a person.
2. Your support of the Academy has immediate impact. We receive your donations and immediately pay our faculty who set the high expectations for our young men. We take your dollars and immediately make the Academy more affordable to families who want the very best for their sons. We accept your generosity and immediately provide programming that challenges and expands our young men’s horizons.

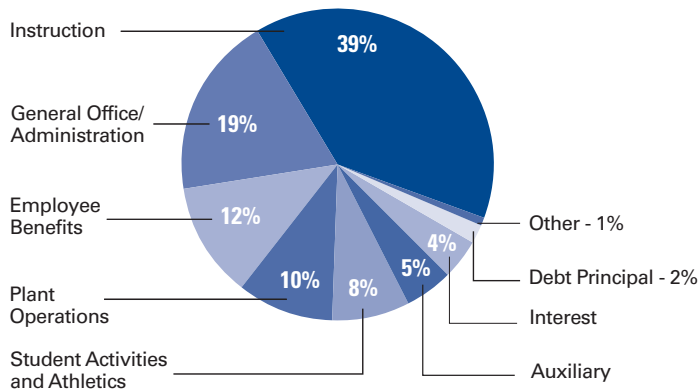

All of us at the Academy say thank you to those who have enabled us to enhance the lives of the young men entrusted to our care. I want you to know that your continuing involvement has immediate and measurable impacts. Without you, the Academy would not be what we all dream — a place that helps boys become men of character for life.

THE HERITAGE SOCIETY

The Heritage Society seeks to recognize those donors who have remembered the Academy by means of a bequest or life insurance. These gifts could be a planned gift for the future, or a bequest or insurance disposition already received.

Saint Thomas Academy continues to remain strong because of the philanthropy and commitment of its valued supporters. THANK YOU to all listed below:

Final Thoughts

Taking a moment out of our busy lives

By Father Thomas F.A. O'Brien

One of the most dramatic aspects of the call of the Apostles in Saint Mark's Gospel is the sense of urgency Mark gives Jesus' mission: "As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and his brother Andrew... And Jesus said to them 'Follow me...' and immediately they left their nets... He saw James and his brother John... Immediately He called them... and immediately they left their father... and followed Him." (Mk 1:16-20)

In striking contrast, Saint John's Gospel presents a far different account: "John the Baptist was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus he exclaimed 'Look, here is the Lamb of God.' The two disciples heard him say this and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following Him, He said to them, 'What are you looking for?' They said to Him, 'Teacher, where are you staying?' He said to them, 'Come and see.' They came and saw where He was staying, and they remained with Him that entire day." (Jn 1:35-40)

All too often our busy lives have such a sense of immediacy and urgency to them that we never quite seem to find the time to rest with, to spend some quiet time with, the Lord. We know, from T.S. Eliot's line, that "He is the still point in our turning world," and yet, it is often so difficult to sit in that still point and get to know the Lord better and to develop our relationship with Him.

Last spring, Saint Thomas Academy inaugurated a Day of Rest to give our alumni, the fathers of our students, their sons, and our male faculty members and friends the opportunity to take three to four hours out of their busy lives to rest in Jesus' presence, to reflect, to pray and to simply put ourselves in the place "where the Lord stays."

You are invited to spend a morning in prayerful reflection on your life and the ways you can be another Christ in your own world. Join us for coffee and socializing at 8:30 a.m. on December 17. Father Kevin McDonough, the Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, will lead our reflections beginning at 9:00 a.m. You will have ample time for quiet prayer and thought. Priests will also be available for the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

We hope you will find the morning restful, refreshing and a meaningful preparation for Christmas. Please join us!
