

Saint Thomas Academy State Championship Alpine Ski Team Takes the Polar Plunge, Raising $1,200 for Special Olympics

MENDOTA HEIGHTS, March 11, 2010 – Saint Thomas Academy's state championship alpine ski team participated in the Polar Plunge at Lake Calhoun on Saturday March 6, raising $1,200 for the Special Olympics. They did it as a team in their downhill GS suits.

The plunge was organized by Coach Nelson Carlson '03. Carlson is a three-time state individual alpine ski champion. D. Thomas '11 is this year's alpine ski state champion. Thomas jumped into the frigid waters along with teammates:

M. Deasey '12
C. Knoedler '13
P. Walker '13
A. Laird '13
C. Shea '15
A. Hove '14
J. Hartnett '12
B. Schaefer '10
M. Whalen '11

and Head Coach Tom Carlson

Amy Lewis, principal
Renown Marketing Communications
651.552.9826

<http://renownmarketing.com> <<http://renownmarketing.com/>>
@renownmktg <<http://twitter.com/renownmktg>>