SAINT THOMAS ACADEMY STUDENT NAMED AP RISING SCHOLAR

MENDOTA HEIGHTS, Minn., Feb. 22, 2008 – Saint Thomas Academy announced today that Senior J. Walston, of Eagan, was named an Advanced Placement Rising Scholar, an honor that is rarely bestowed upon a high school student.

The Minnesota Advanced Placement Advisory Council (MNAPAC) traditionally honors students who have graduated with the title of "Rising Scholar." A very small percentage of students are named an AP Scholar while still in high school.

About Saint Thomas Academy

Founded in 1885, Saint Thomas Academy is an all-male, military/leadership, Catholic, college preparatory school committed to preparing young men to succeed in college and in life. Nationally accredited by the Independent Schools Association of the Central States (ISACS), the academy challenges young men to excel academically, spiritually, physically, and emotionally in and out of the classroom.
