

F.J. “STEVE” DOLAN

CLASS OF 1951

Steve Dolan’s senior year at Saint Thomas Military Academy was a golden one – every Academy athletic team won the Central Catholic Conference Championship that academic year. A three-sport athlete, Steve earned six letters at the Academy. His college career at the College of St. Thomas was interrupted by a stint in the Army, but he was able to continue to play baseball and football. A member of Mensa, Dolan has been successful off the field as well, publishing two novels, two screenplays and Superior Vocabulary, a book of examples for advanced-level words. Steve currently is the owner of two businesses – Dolan Software Co., LLC, and an insurance claim service – and lives in Saint Paul, MN.
