

MICHAEL J. ROBERTSON

CLASS OF 1965

Mike Robertson was an accomplished four-sport athlete who earned a record-setting 11 letters at the Academy and a hockey scholarship to Boston College; he also played baseball and football for BC. In 1964, he was named the Athlete of the Year by the Downtown St. Paul Lions Club. During college, he received a number of awards, including being named winner of the 1969 Varsity Club Baseball Award. After college, he played four years of major league baseball for the Senators and Rangers. Mike and his wife Janet live in Placentia, CA, and have two children, Mike and Missy. He is a partner in two businesses, J. Fraser & Associates and Boomer Supply, Inc.

MIKE ROBERTSON STATISTICS -

Saint Thomas Academy Athletics, total of eleven Letters –

- STMA baseball: '62, '63, '64, '65 (co-captain)
- STMA football: '62, '63, '64
- STMA hockey: '63, '64, '65 (co-captain)
- STMA track: '65
- Central Catholic Conference All-League:
Football: '64, '65
Hockey: '63, '64, '65
- All-State -
Football: '64, '65
Hockey: '65
- All-American:
Baseball: '63
Football: '65
- Athlete of the Year: '64 Downtown St. Paul
Lions Club

Post-Secondary Athletics, total of seven Letters –

- Boston College baseball: '66, '67, '68, '69 (captain)
- Boston College football: '65, '66, '67, '68
- Boston College hockey: '65, '66, '67
- Baseball All Northeast Region: '68
- Baseball All Greater Boston League: '67, '68
- Baseball All New England: '68
- Football All New England: '68
- Varsity Club Baseball Award Winner: '69
- 1968 - Top 10 in the nation in homeruns for a second baseman

Professional Experience –

- Played with the Washington Senators 1969-1971
- Played with the Texas Rangers 1972

Other athletic-related activities, awards and accomplishments –

- Inducted into the Boston College Sports Hall of Fame in 1989 (baseball)
- Inducted into the Mancini's St. Paul Sports Hall of Fame in 2002: (football)